PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

I was born at a very young age in a small place that is still small. Then I moved to a small place with a big stock exchange and lots of people. You might have heard of it, New York? I live in an apartment with a cat who boxes my ankles when I don't feed her at her every beck and call and a roommate who speaks several languages but none of them seem to be English. Sign language comes in very handy for things like, "Pass the milk, please."
